CALL FOR RESEARCH PROPOSALS IN THE AREA OF HUMAN NUTRITION

NUTRICIA Foundation invites to participate in the 2020 grant contest:

- experienced scientists (research grant max. 2 years)
- doctoral candidates (research grant max. 3 years)
- young scientists (fellowship max. 1 year).

This year, priority will be given to proposals on the following topics:

- Food allergy among infants and young children
- Role of nutrition on rehabilitation after stroke
- Impact of medical nutrition on prevention and treatment of elderly patients after bone injuries

Research projects should be based on the original and testable hypotheses. The applications of protocols of randomized, double blind, placebo controlled clinical trials are strongly recommended. Projects qualifying for grants and fellowships will be selected and ranked by the Scientific Council.

Application forms are available at www.fundacjanutricia.pl
